💵 MONEY

How much will I need?

Peru is wonderfully good value. Your daily spend depends on your style — a rough guide per person, per day, excluding international flights.

BACKPACKER

US$40–55

Hostels, set-menu lunches (menú del día), public transport.

per person / day

MID-RANGE

US$90–160

Boutique hotels, guided day tours, nice restaurants, the odd flight.

COMFORT

US$220+

Top hotels, private guides, premium trains and domestic flights.

per person / day

Money tips

- Pay in soles; USD is taken at some hotels but rates are poor.
- Cards work in cities; carry cash for markets, taxis and rural areas.
- Use ATMs inside banks; keep small notes — change for S/100 can be tricky.
- Tipping: ~10% in restaurants, and a little for guides and drivers.

🛂 Visas & entry

Most visitors — including the US, UK, EU, Canada, Australia and New Zealand — don't need a visa for tourism and can stay up to 90–183 days. Your passport should be valid for at least 6 months. You'll get an entry stamp (or digital record) on arrival; keep it for check-out.

⚠️ Rules change — always confirm with the official Peruvian immigration site or your embassy before you fly.

📅 WHEN TO GO

Timing your trip

Peru is a year-round destination — it just depends which Peru you're after.

MAY–SEP

Dry season

Best for the Andes, Inca Trail and Machu Picchu — clear skies, cool nights, peak crowds.

NOV–MAR

Wet season

Green landscapes and fewer people; afternoon rain in the highlands. Inca Trail closed in February.

DEC–MAR

Coast summer

Hot, sunny beach weather in Lima and the north — perfect for surf and seafood.

YEAR-ROUND

Amazon

Warm and humid always; drier June–Oct, higher rivers and great wildlife Nov–May.

🚌 GETTING AROUND

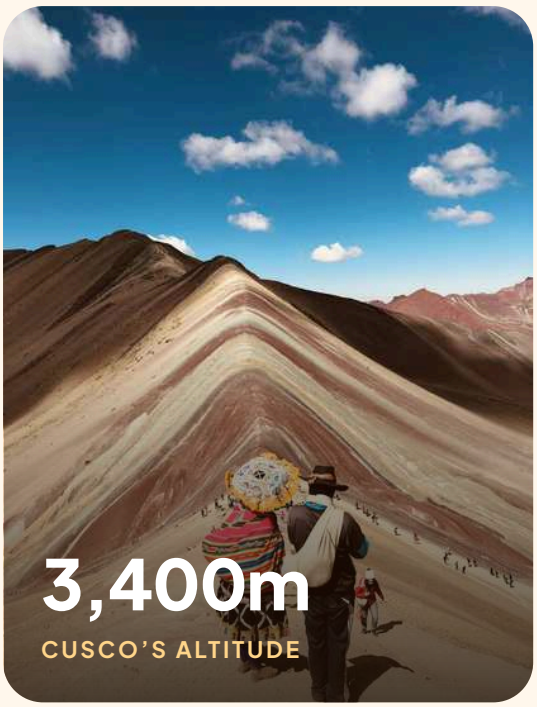

Planes, buses, trains & taxis

- ✈️ Flights (LATAM, Sky, JetSmart) save days on long hops like Lima–Cusco.
- 🚌 Long-distance buses (Cruz del Sur, Oltursa) connect every city in comfort.
- 🚆 Scenic trains (PeruRail, Inca Rail) run to Machu Picchu.
- 🚕 In cities use Uber/Cabify or agree the fare before you ride.

🩺 TRAVEL WELL

Altitude, health & staying safe

🏔️ Altitude — take it easy

Cusco sits at 3,400m and Lake Titicaca higher still. Spend your first day or two taking it slow, drink plenty of water, go easy on alcohol, and sip coca tea like the locals.

> If you can, acclimatise in the Sacred Valley (lower than Cusco) before Machu Picchu.

🩺 Health & water

- Drink bottled or filtered water, not tap.
- Ask your doctor about Hep A & typhoid; yellow-fever shot for the jungle.
- Pack sunscreen — the high-altitude sun is fierce.
- Bring any personal meds; travel insurance is a must.

🛟 Staying safe & connected

Peru is welcoming and safe for travellers who use common sense — watch your bag in crowds and markets, use registered taxis or apps at night, and keep valuables out of sight.

A local SIM (Claro, Movistar or Entel) is cheap, and Wi-Fi is widespread in hotels and cafés.

🎒 What to pack — layers!

Andean days are warm and nights cold.

- Light down jacket
- Rain shell
- Comfy hiking shoes
- Sun hat & sunglasses
- Refillable water bottle
- Power adapter
- Small daypack
- Flip-flops for coast & jungle

⛰️ ANDES HIGHLANDS

Machu Picchu

Sunrise over the lost city of the Inca

01

THE EXPERIENCE

Wrapped in morning mist and golden light, Machu Picchu is a citadel of green terraces and soaring peaks that the jungle hid for centuries. As the sun crests Huayna Picchu, the stones glow honey-gold and the valley wakes up — llamas grazing, hummingbirds darting.

Destino Perú's local guides grew up in these mountains and lead you to the Temple of the Sun, the Intihuatana stone and the quiet corners most visitors miss.

✨ Trip highlights

- → Sunrise at the Sun Gate
- → Temple of the Sun & Intihuatana
- → Scenic train through the Sacred Valley
- → Friendly resident llamas

👥 WHO'S IT FOR

- Every kind of traveller — it tops the list
- Couples, families & solo adventurers
- History & nature lovers alike

📋 NEED TO KNOW

- Entry is timed & sells out — plan ahead
- Subtropical: sun, rain & strong UV in one day
- Clearest May–Sep; Inca Trail closed in Feb
- Pack layers, rain gear, water & your passport

ANDES HIGHLANDS

Cusco & the Sacred Valley

02

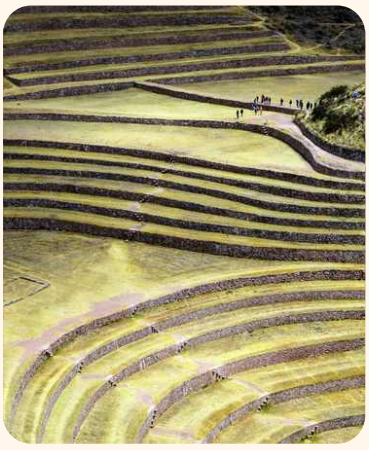

Inca capital, sunny plazas, market days

THE EXPERIENCE

The beating heart of the Inca world is a happy, walkable city of red roofs and sunny squares, where Inca walls meet colonial balconies and artisan markets sit beside rooftop cafés. Wander cobbled San Blas and sip an emoliente in the Plaza de Armas.

Below the city, the Sacred Valley rolls out green and golden: the salt terraces of Maras, the circular farms of Moray and the lively market town of Pisac, all framed by snow-dusted peaks.

✨ Trip highlights

- Plaza de Armas & San Blas
- Pisac & Chinchero markets
- Maras salt pans
- Sacsayhuamán fortress

👥 WHO'S IT FOR

- Culture, history & food lovers
- Families & market browsers
- Acclimatising first-timers

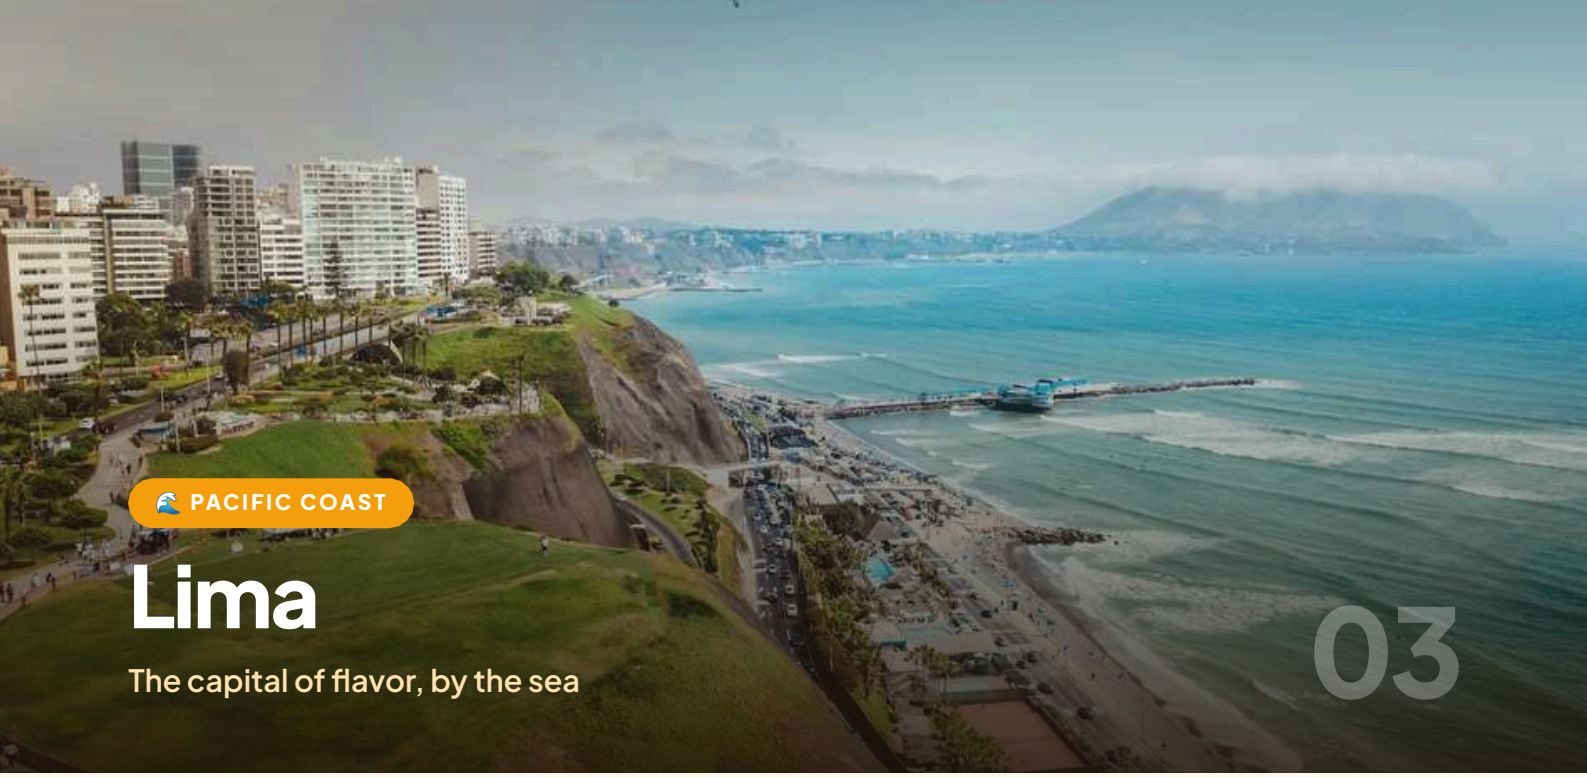

📋 NEED TO KNOW

- Cusco sits at 3,400m — ease in slowly
- Cold nights, warm sunny days — bring layers
- Intense high-altitude sun — hat & sunscreen
- Carry cash for markets & small shops

🌊 PACIFIC COAST

Lima

The capital of flavor, by the sea

03

THE EXPERIENCE

Sun on the Pacific, paragliders over the cliffs of Miraflores and a food scene the whole world flies in for — Lima is bright, breezy and absolutely delicious. Start with ceviche, then wander the bougainvillea-draped balconies of artsy, colourful Barranco.

The historic centre dazzles with grand plazas and gilded balconies, while the coastal Malecón brings ocean breezes and the best sunset in the city. Come hungry; leave grinning.

✨ Trip highlights

- → World-famous ceviche & cebicherías
- → Miraflores cliffs & Malecón
- → Bohemian Barranco
- → Grand historic centre

👥 WHO'S IT FOR

- Foodies above all
- City lovers & culture seekers
- Stopover & first/last-night travellers

📋 NEED TO KNOW

- Grey, cool mist (garúa) May–Nov; sunny Dec–Apr
- Safe, walkable Miraflores & Barranco
- Use taxi apps at night
- Arrive with an empty stomach!

🌴 AMAZON BASIN

The Amazon Rainforest

A wild paradise of infinite nature, unique biodiversity and unforgettable landscapes

04

THE EXPERIENCE

Step into the greenest place on Earth, where rivers loop like ribbons, macaws blaze across the canopy and every dawn is a jungle symphony. From a cosy riverside lodge you glide along mirror-still lakes at sunrise, spot monkeys and sloths and fish for piranha.

Naturalist guides read the forest like a book — pointing out medicinal plants, hidden frogs and the flash of a kingfisher. Nights sparkle with fireflies and stars.

✨ Trip highlights

- → Sunrise canoe safaris
- → Macaws, monkeys & sloths
- → Canopy walkways
- → Cosy riverside eco-lodge

👥 WHO'S IT FOR

- Wildlife & nature lovers
- Families, couples & photographers
- Adventurous relaxers

📋 NEED TO KNOW

- Hot & humid all year — light long sleeves
- Yellow-fever jab recommended; bring repellent
- Drier Jun–Oct; lush, high rivers Nov–May
- Expect rustic lodges & limited connectivity

🛩️ SOUTH COAST DESERT

The Nazca Lines

Iconic art etched into a timeless desert

05

THE EXPERIENCE

A hummingbird the size of a football pitch, a monkey with a curling tail: banking gently in a little plane over the warm desert, you see one of humanity's most playful mysteries from above. No one fully knows why the Nazca people drew these figures more than 1,500 years ago.

Pair the flight with golden dunes, pisco vineyards and the buggy thrills of the Huacachina oasis for a sun-soaked desert day.

✨ Trip highlights

- Scenic flight over the geoglyphs
- The Hummingbird, Monkey & Astronaut
- Huacachina desert oasis
- Pisco & vineyard tastings

👥 WHO'S IT FOR

- Mystery & archaeology buffs
- Bucket-list adventurers
- Desert & adrenaline fans

📋 NEED TO KNOW

- Hot, dry desert — sun protection essential
- Light planes bank hard; medicate if motion-sick
- Morning flights have the calmest air
- Pair with Huacachina & Ica for a full day

PACIFIC COAST

Paracas & Ballestas Islands

Sea lions, penguins & golden cliffs

06

THE EXPERIENCE

They call them the “poor man’s Galápagos”, but there’s nothing humble about the Ballestas Islands: thousands of seabirds, barking sea lions, Humboldt penguins and dolphins under big blue coastal skies, reached by speedboat past the mysterious Candelabra geoglyph.

Back on shore, the Paracas Reserve glows red and gold where the desert tumbles straight into the ocean — a favourite for families and photographers alike.

✨ Trip highlights

- Ballestas Islands boat safari
- Sea lions, penguins & dolphins
- The Candelabra geoglyph
- Red-sand Paracas Reserve

👥 WHO’S IT FOR

- Families & wildlife lovers
- Beach & boat fans
- Easy-going explorers

📋 NEED TO KNOW

- Windy coast — bring a windbreaker
- Strong sun off the water — sunscreen & hat
- Morning boats for calm seas & best wildlife
- A relaxed alternative to the Galápagos

Cordillera Blanca & Huascarán Wind through the Callejón de Huaylas beneath the white peaks, with Peru's highest mountain, Huascarán (6,768 m), towering above.

Andean villages Pass pretty highland towns — Carhuaz, where you'll taste ice cream made from pure milk and fresh fruit, and Yungay, with its poignant memorial garden.

Laguna Llanganuco Enter Huascarán National Park to reach the turquoise waters of Llanganuco, cradled by glaciers and groves of queñual trees.

🍽 No meals included

Day 2 — Chavín de Huántar

Over the Cahuish pass Set off early across the high Cahuish tunnel (4,550 m) into the Conchucos valley, with sweeping mountain views along the way.

Chavín temple Explore one of the Andes' oldest ceremonial centres — the carved tenon heads, the Lanzón monolith, underground galleries, plazas and stairways.

Chavín museum Round off at the modern national museum, then return to Huaraz for the night.

🍽 Breakfast

Day 3 — Free day in Huaraz

Day at leisure A free day to rest, acclimatise further or add an optional trek into the mountains at your own pace.

🍽 Breakfast

Day 4 — Departure

Transfer to the airport At leisure until your transfer for the flight back to Lima or onward journey.

🍽 Breakfast

🌈 MULTI-REGION JOURNEYS NEW PACKAGE

Peru in Colour

A vivid journey from Lima to the Andes — white-stone Arequipa, the Colca condors, the blue islands of Lake Titicaca, imperial Cusco, Machu Picchu and the Rainbow Mountain.

🕒 12 days · 11 nights 🥾 Active · high altitude From €1483 per person

THE ROUTE 1 Lima — 2 Arequipa — 3 Puno — 4 Cusco

THE PROGRAMME · 12 DAYS · 11 NIGHTS

Day 1 — Welcome to Lima

Arrival in Lima Welcome to Peru! Touch down in the capital and transfer to your hotel to settle in.

🍽 No meals included

Day 2 — Lima city tour & Museo Larco

Miraflores & San Isidro Set out along the Pacific cliffs through Lima's smart, leafy seaside districts, with wide views of the ocean.

Huaca Pucllana Pause at the great pre-Inca adobe pyramid, a ceremonial temple that has survived the city rising up all around it.

Colonial old town Explore the UNESCO historic centre — the Plaza Mayor, Government Palace and Cathedral — and the Santo Domingo convent that guards the relics of Peru's saints.

Museo Larco Finish at the Larco Museum and its dazzling collection of pre-Columbian ceramics, including the famous erotic gallery, then return to Larcomar or your hotel.

🍽 Breakfast

Day 3 — Fly to Arequipa & Santa Catalina

Flight to Arequipa Transfer to the airport and fly south to the White City (2,400 m); the rest of the morning is free to rest and acclimatise.

Colonial centre In the afternoon, stroll the Plaza de Armas, Municipal Palace, Cathedral and Jesuit Compañía church, all built from gleaming white sillar stone.

Santa Catalina Monastery Wander the painted lanes of Santa Catalina, a city-within-a-city and one of Peru's most beautiful religious monuments.

Yanahuara & viewpoints Visit colonial Yanahuara with its Andalusian-style arches and viewpoint, the farming terraces of Carmen Alto and leafy Selva Alegre.

🍽 Breakfast

Day 4 — Over the altiplano to Colca

Vicuña reserve Climb onto the high plateau through Yura and the Aguada Blanca reserve, home to wild vicuñas grazing the puna.

Tocra wetlands & volcano viewpoint Cross the Tocra wetlands alive with migratory birds and stop at the Mirador de los Volcanes for sweeping highland views.

Chivay village Arrive in Chivay for lunch and a rest, then explore the village and its lively market.

🍽 Breakfast, lunch

Day 5 — Cruz del Cóndor & on to Puno

Cruz del Cóndor An early start to the famous lookout, where giant condors ride the thermals above the depths of the Colca Canyon.

Maca & Yanque On the return, visit the colonial villages of Maca and Yanque and the Antahuilque viewpoint.

Across the high country to Puno Drive on to Puno over the stone-forest highlands, crossing Crucero Alto (4,538 m) and the lakes of Lagunillas — about six hours to Lake Titicaca.

🍽 Breakfast

Day 6 — Lake Titicaca — Taquile & Uros

Sail to Taquile Board a traditional boat across the deep blue of Lake Titicaca to Taquile, an island community that keeps its ancestral customs alive.

Lunch at Luquina Chico Stop at the lakeside hamlet of Luquina Chico for a buffet lunch with beautiful views over the water.

🎒 100% TAILOR-MADE TRIPS

Want something just for you?

Every tour here can be tweaked, combined or built from scratch. Tell us your dream and we'll design it.

PERSONALISED JOURNEYS

We design authentic, fully personalised itineraries

Founded in 1997, Destino Perú was born from a deep love of Peru and more than 30 years of experience in the travel sector. Our Peruvian founder has travelled — and keeps discovering — every corner of the country, to always offer authentic, exclusive and carefully curated experiences, blending local experience with an international vision.

WHY TRAVEL WITH US

- 100% local, English-speaking guides
- Fully tailor-made itineraries
- Food & culture at the heart of every trip
- Real support, 24/7, on WhatsApp

Local to the core

We're Peruvians sharing the country we love — real guides, real families, real flavours.

Travel that gives back

We work with community hosts and small businesses so your trip lifts the places you visit.

Effortless & personal

No cookie-cutter coach tours. Every itinerary is shaped around you, down to the last sunset.
